

The College's curriculum personnel, in partnership with the administration, ensure the overall effectiveness of the educational programs. Additionally, curriculum personnel are involved in the College's decision-making processes in the following ways:

1. Have primary responsibility for the content, quality and effectiveness of the curriculum.
2. Participate in program/division level decisions and activities.
3. Participate in College committees based on the President or designee's appointment.
4. Participate in a governance body (e.g., President's Council or Employee Senate), which is designed to provide broad-based participation in the College's planning process, educational issues and other related issues.
